

Software Developer / Team Lead

Development – Vancouver area, British Columbia

Thoughtexchange is a new way for groups to communicate, bringing people together by leading conversations about things that matter. Our software and services are used for strategic planning, community engagement and more.

As a result of our continued growth we are searching for a passionate leader to join our team of collaborative developers.

We support and encourage both working from home and coming to the office. We do get together regularly so we prefer candidates located in the Lower Mainland/Vancouver and West Kootenays. Salary and share grants commensurate with skills and experience.

What you will be doing:

- participate in feature conceptualization and design
- get involved in software implementation and test
- collaborate with both local and remote team members
- receive mentoring & support from an experienced & dynamic development team
- help guide a small team of experienced developers

You may also be involved in:

- UI & UX
- server-side business logic
- infrastructure & database
- system scalability

What you bring to the table:

- 5+ years of software development experience
- ability to lead, mentor & motivate small development teams
- firm grasp of web technologies including HTML, CSS, JavaScript
- working knowledge of linux, docker, apache, nginx, uwsgi, python, typescript
- OO development experience & demonstrated knowledge of database systems
- comfort with software revision control systems (Git, Mercurial, etc)
- strong communication and interpersonal skills
- ability to collaborate within a diverse technical team
- self-starting and self-managing attitude

About Thoughtexchange:

- we provide software and services to let customers lead group conversations with 5 to 50,000 people
- our applications run on desktops and mobile devices, using the latest web technologies, deployed on distributed, cloud-based, high traffic websites
- our patent pending algorithms analyze our large volumes of collected data to provide deep insights for our customers, allowing them to make informed decisions
- we are a team of more than 100 inspired people
- we have closed $12M of investment from some of Canada's top angel investors
